NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED
AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION

PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOUR PRIVACY:

Our practice is dedicated to maintaining the privacy of your Protected Health Information ("PHI"). In conducting our business we will create records regarding you and the treatment and services we provide to you. We are required by law to maintain the confidentiality of health information that identifies you. We are also required by law to provide you with this notice of legal duties and the privacy practices that we maintain in our practice concerning your PHI. By Federal and State Law we must follow the terms of the privacy practices that we have in effect at the time.

The Health Insurance Portability & Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA") is a Federal program that requires all medical records and other individually identifiable health information used or disclosed by us in any form, whether electronically, on paper, or orally are kept properly confidential. This Act gives you, the patient, the right to understand and control how your Protected Health Information ("PHI") is used. HIPAA provides penalties for covered entities that misuse personal health information.

As required by HIPAA, we prepared this explanation of how we are to maintain the privacy of your health information and how we may disclose your personal information. We will not use or disclose your PHI except as described in this Notice. This Notice applies to all of the medical records generated by Twin Peaks Dermatology, PC as well as records we receive from other providers.

We may use and disclose your medical records for each of the following purposes:

- Treatment: Providing, coordinating, or managing health care and related services by one or more healthcare providers. Examples of this include referring you to another doctor, sending a prescription to your pharmacy, sending an order for bloodwork to a laboratory.
- Payment: This includes such activities as obtaining reimbursement for services, confirming coverage/eligibility with your insurance company, obtaining prior authorization for a procedure or visit or medication, billing or collections activities, demonstration of necessity of care, and utilization review. An example of this would include sending your insurance company a bill for your visit and/or verifying coverage prior to a surgery. We may use and disclose your PHI to third parties responsible for payment, such as family members, and to third parties that specialize in payment collection, such as our accounts receivable management company. We may also disclose your PHI to other health care providers and entities involved in your care that require information to assist in their billing and collection efforts.
- Health Care Operations: This includes business aspects of running our practice such as: customer service; conducting quality assessments and improvement activities; auditing functions such as medical reviews, legal services, and maintaining compliance programs; cost management analysis; employee review activities and training programs; accreditation, certification, licensing, or credentialing activities; business management and general administrative activities. An example of this would be new patient survey cards. In addition, we may disclose your protected health information to other health care providers and entities to assist in their health care operations.

We may also create and distribute de-identified health information by removing all reference to individually identifiable information.

We may contact you, by phone or in writing, to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services, in addition to other fundraising communications that may be of interest to you. You do have the right to "opt out" with respect to receiving fundraising communications from us.

USES & DISCLOSURE IN CERTAIN SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

- Research: Under certain circumstances, our practice may use and disclose your PHI to approved clinical research studies. While most clinical research studies require specific patient consent, there are some instances where a retrospective record review with no patient contact may be conducted by such researchers. For example, the research project may involve comparing the health and recovery of patients who received one medication for their medical condition to those who received a different medication for that same condition.
- Regulatory Agencies: Our practice may disclose your PHI to government and certain private health oversight agencies, e.g., the Department of Public Health and Environment or the Board of Medical Examiners, for activities authorized by law, including, but not limited to: licensure, certification, audits, investigations, and inspections. These activities are necessary to monitor compliance with the requirements of government programs.
- Law Enforcement/Litigation: Our practice may disclose your PHI for law enforcement purposes as required by law or in response to a court order or other process in litigation.
- Public Health: As required by law, our practice may disclose your PHI to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability. We are required to report the existence of a communicable disease to the Department of Public Health and Environment to protect the health and well-being of the general public.
- Workers' Compensation: Our practice may release PHI about you for workers' compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illnesses.
- Military/Veterans: If you are a member of the armed forces, our practice may disclose your PHI as required by military command authorities.
- Organ Procurement Organizations: To the extent allowed by law, our practice may disclose your PHI to organ procurement organizations and other entities engaged in the procurement, banking, or transplantation of organs for the purpose of tissue donation and transplant.
- As Otherwise Required or Permitted By Law: Our practice will disclose your PHI in any situation in which such disclosure is required by law (e.g., child abuse, domestic abuse) or any other use permitted under HIPAA, its amendments, or regulations.
- Organizations assisting in disaster relief programs: Such as during floods and other natural disasters.
- Assisted Living and Long-Term Care Facilities: Facilities where you may reside and who are involved in your medical care.

The following uses and disclosures of PHI will only be made pursuant to us receiving a written authorization from you:

- Most uses and disclosure of psychotherapy notes;
- Uses and disclosure of your PHI for marketing purposes, including subsidized treatment and health care operations;
- Disclosures that constitute a sale of PHI under HIPAA; and
- Other uses and disclosures not described in this notice.

You may revoke such authorization in writing and we are required to honor and abide by that written request, except to the extent that we have already taken actions relying on your prior authorization.

You have the following rights with respect to your PHI:

- The right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of PHI, including those related to disclosures of family members, other relatives, close personal friends, or any other person identified by you. We are, however, not required to honor a request restriction except in limited circumstances which we shall explain if you ask. If we do agree to the restriction, we must abide by it unless you agree in writing to remove it.
- The right to reasonable requests to receive confidential communications of PHI by alternative means or at alternative locations. For example, you may request that we contact you at work, by mail, through the online secured patient portal, or by secured fax.
- The right to inspect and copy your PHI.
- The right to amend your PHI.
- The right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your PHI.
- The right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us upon request.
- The right to be advised if your unprotected PHI is intentionally or unintentionally disclosed.

If you have paid for services "out of pocket", in full, or in advance, and you request that we not disclose PHI related solely to those services to a health plan, we will accommodate your request, except where we are required by law to make a disclosure.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your PHI and to provide you the notice of our legal duties and our privacy practice with respect to PHI.

This notice is effective for all PHI created on or after September 23, 2013 and it is our intention to abide by the terms of the Notice of Privacy Practices and HIPAA Regulations currently in effect. We reserve the right to change the terms of our Notice of Privacy Practices and to make the new notice provision effective for all PHI that we maintain. We will post a copy and you may request a written copy of the revised Notice of Privacy Practices from our office.

You have recourse if you feel that your protections have been violated by our office. You have the right to file a formal, written complaint with the practice (Twin Peaks Dermatology P.C., Attn: Practice Compliance Officer- John Fueston, MD, 205 S. Main St., Ste E, Longmont, CO 80501) and with the Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Civil Rights (www.hhs.gov/hipaa). We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Feel free to contact the Practice Compliance Officer (John Fueston, MD; office phone number: 303-485-8913) for more information, in person, or in writing.
